

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

September 23, 1976.

NO. 465

REMARKS BY
THE HONORABLE HENRY A. KISSINGER
SECRETARY OF STATE
AT STATE HOUSE
NAKURU, KENYA
September 23, 1976

Mr. President, it is always a great joy for me to see our good friend President Kenyatta who has inspired the independence of all of East Africa. Our friend has done me the honor of inviting me here and let me watch your dancing. And those of you who have seen me dancing will recognize that as far as dancing is concerned we need a lot of technical assistance from President Kenyatta. I have been in Africa to work with its leaders on their aspirations for peace, for freedom, for justice and for progress. And there is no leader to whom we feel closer than your distinguished President. We believe in the security and integrity and progress of Kenya and we will work closely with its leaders to that objective. Your President and I have talked as friends and we will return now to the United States with a warm feeling because of the reception we have had here. Harambee, Kenya na America.
